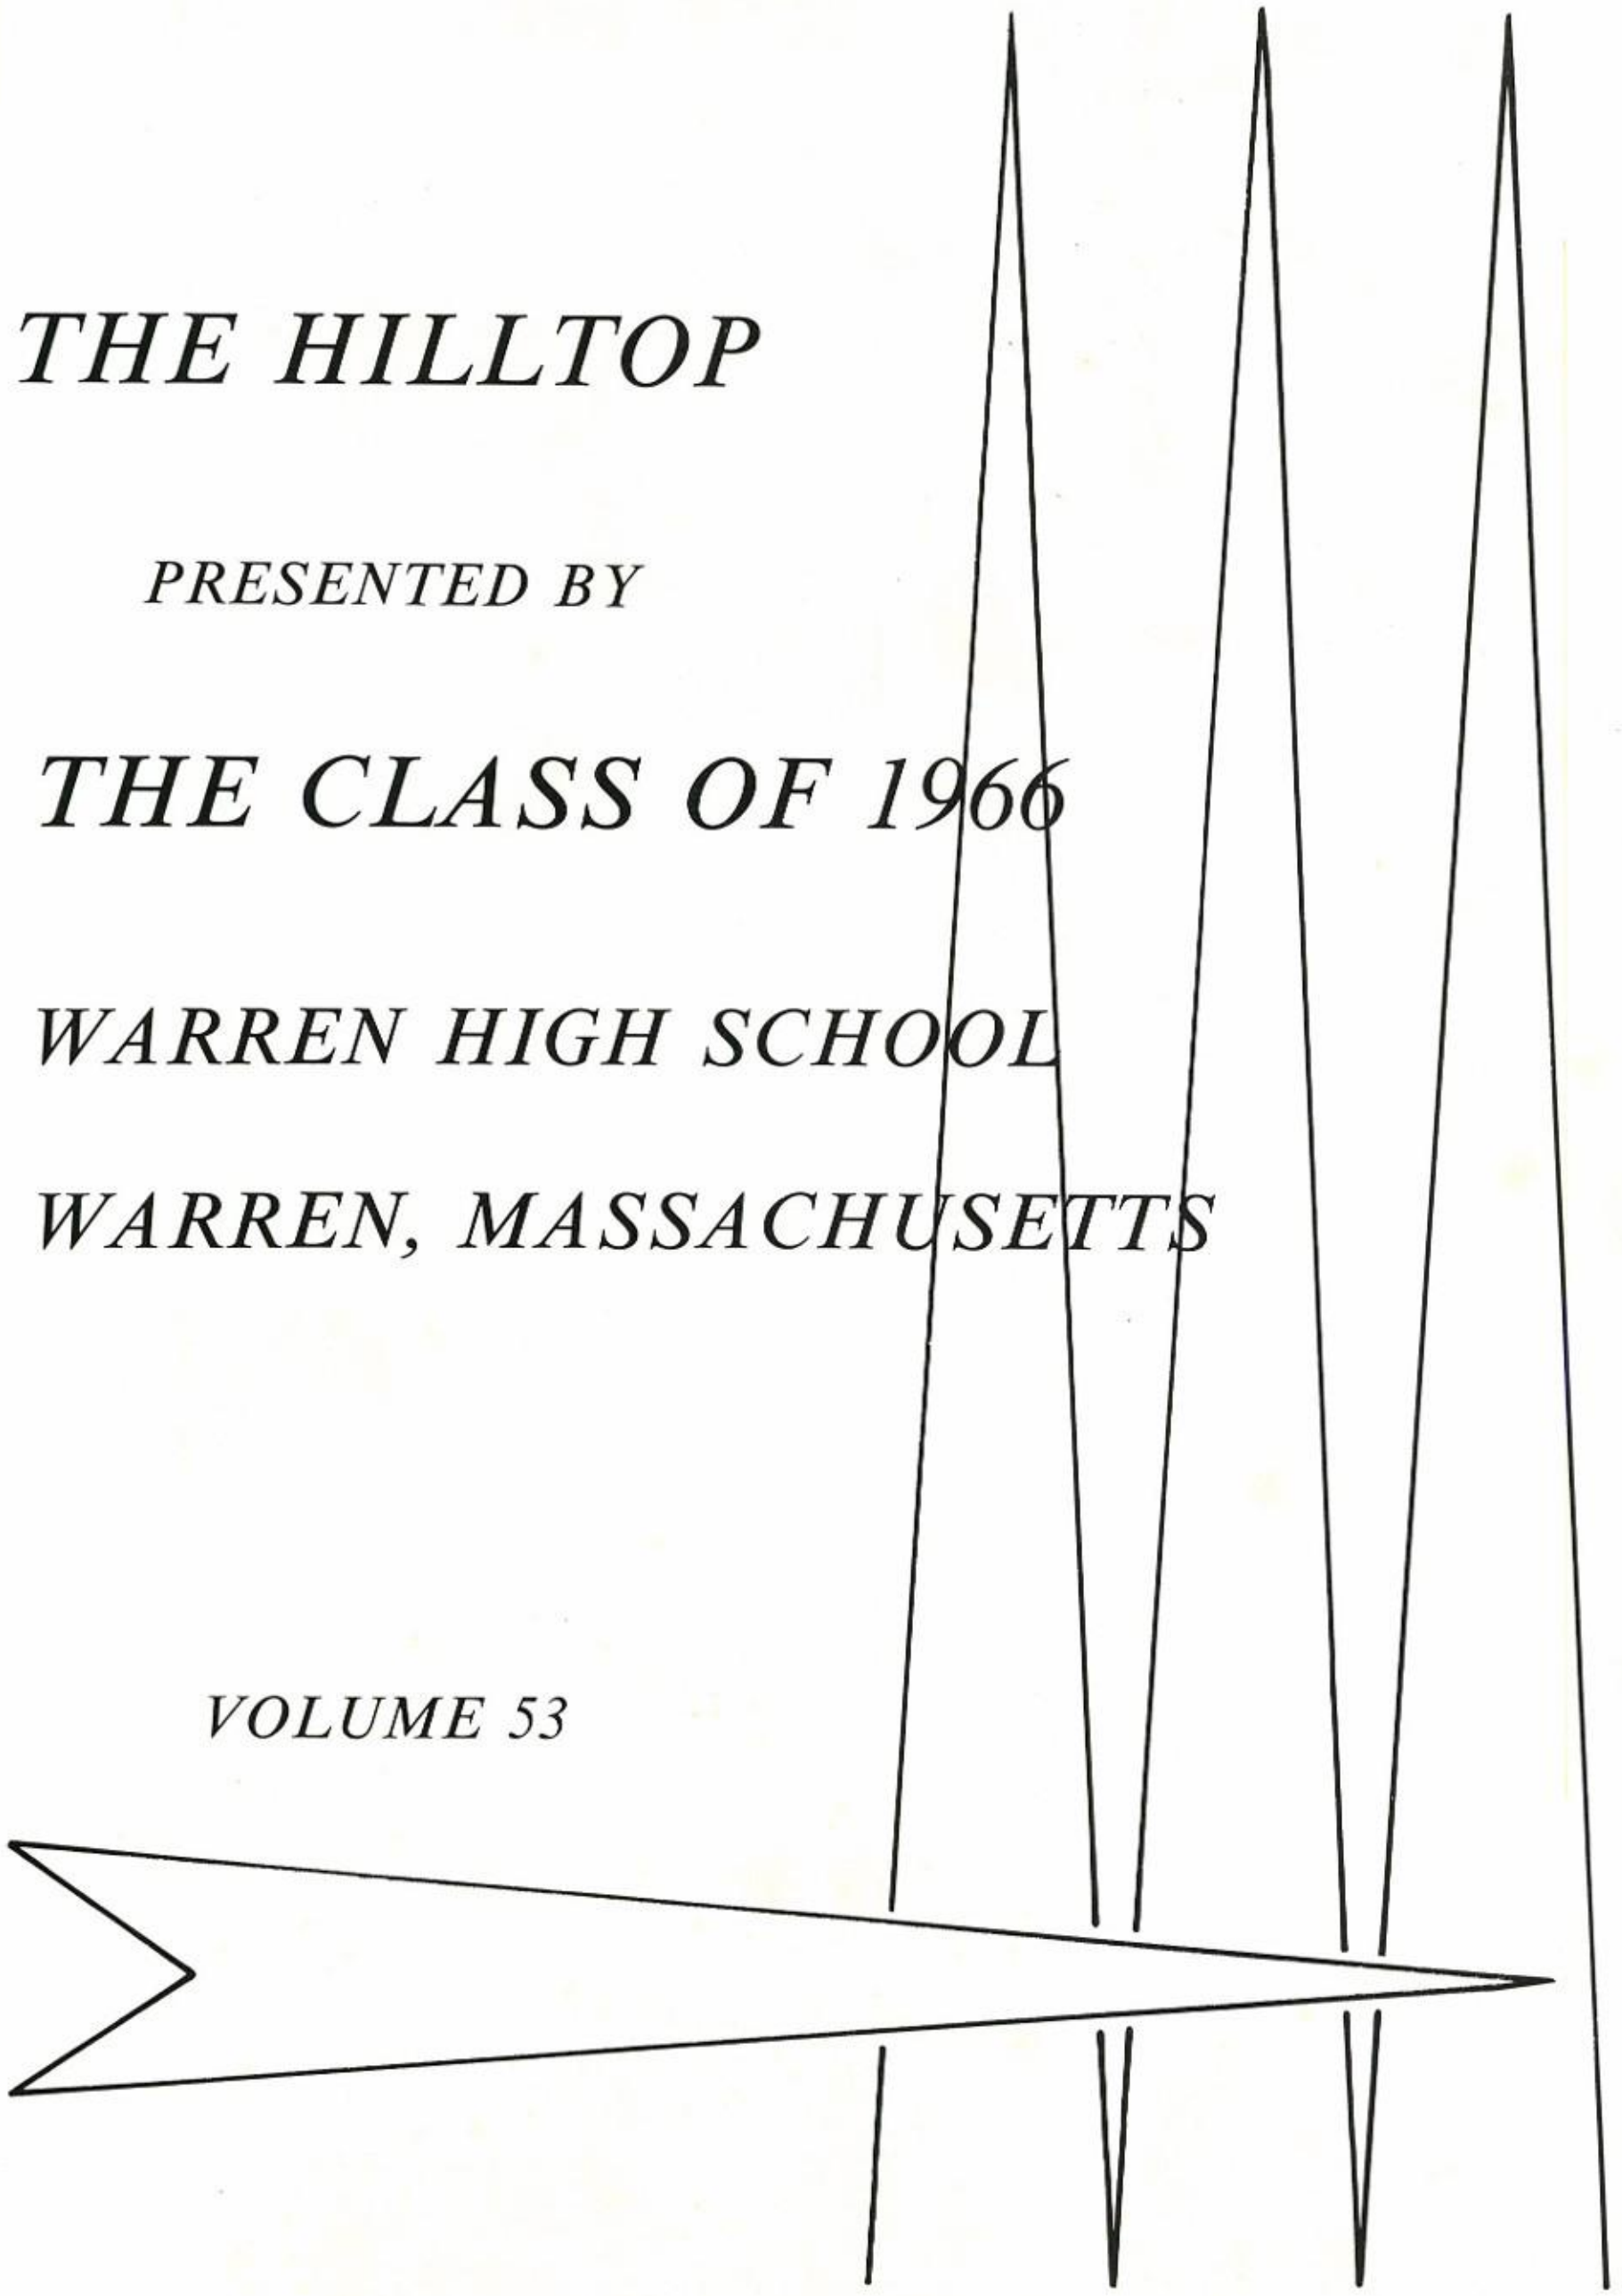
WARREN, MASSACHUSETTS

VOLUME 53



DEDICATION

For her patience, for her helpfulness, for her kindness, for her consideration, and for her understanding, we the Class of 1966 dedicate this year's Hilltop to Miss Claire Burke as a token of our esteem and gratitude for all she has done for us during our four years of high school.

ALMA MATER

Let us join in song together,
Sing our song anew;
Our beloved Warren High School,
Sound her praises true.

Honor to the black and orange,
Colors that we love;
They shall lead us to the future;
And our triumph prove.

Seniors, Juniors, Sophs, and Freshmen,
All for honors try;
Bringing credit to the name of
Dear old Warren High.

It is she we'll all remember
As we sing our song;
Honor, love, and true devotion,
All to her belong.

CHORUS:

Sing her praises,
Cheer her onward,
High her banner fly,
Hail to thee,
Our own dear High School,
Hail to Warren High.

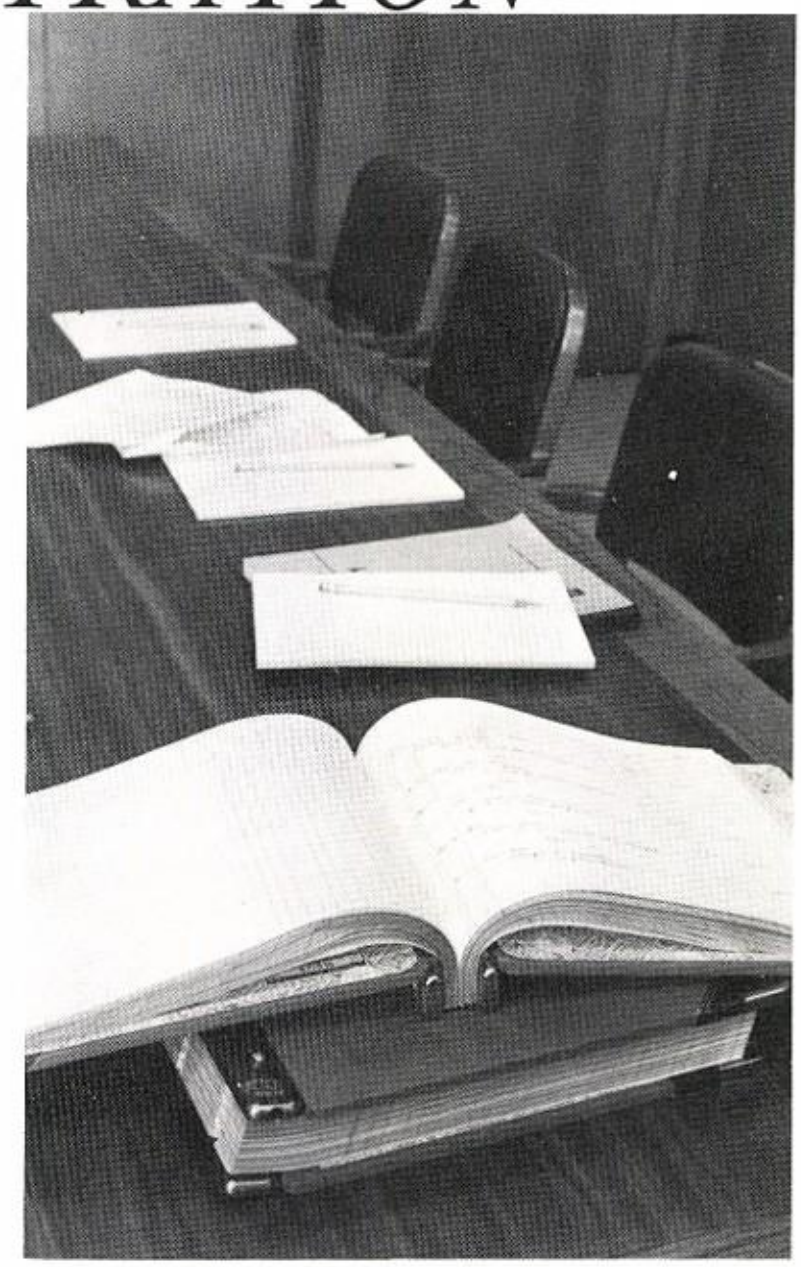
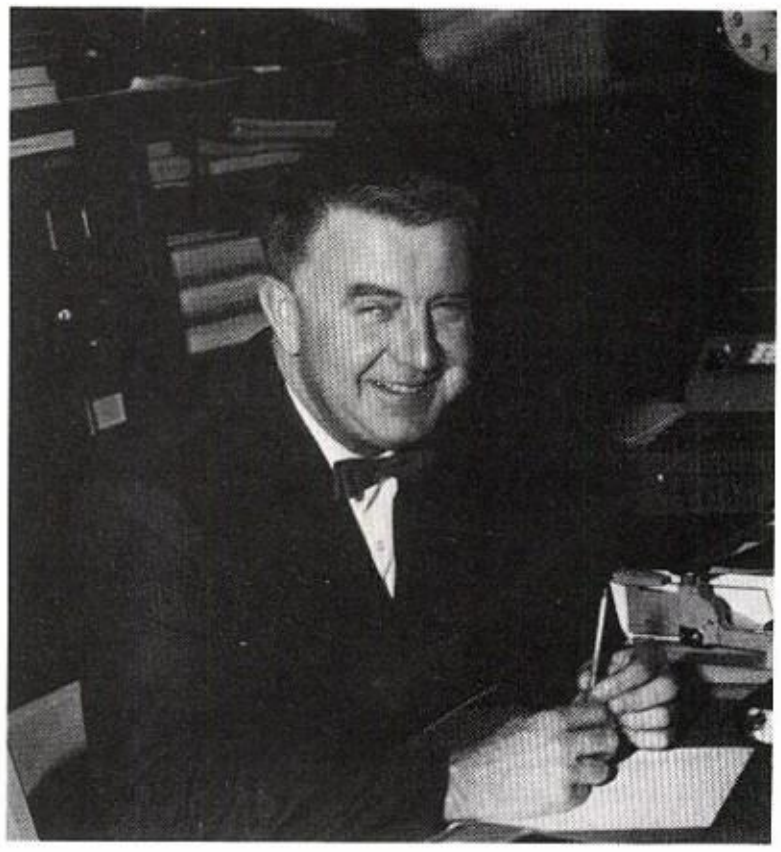
MEMORIAM

FOR THE UNITED STATES SOLDIERS IN VIET NAM

And who is this?
The boy next door?
Oh yes, I remember him --
The child who shared my laughter,
My tears;
The child who brightened my days with his smile;
The child who poured out his heart to me
With plans for the future;
The child whom I loved.
But he looks so different --
His war has made him strong,
    yet so lonely;
His war has made him proud,
    yet so tired.
No, this is not the boy I ran with and played with.
This is a man;
A man who has borne the sufferings of a troubled time;
A man who has fought for the weak, to overcome the oppressor;
A man who is fighting for the liberty he has known
To be bestowed upon others,
So that they too may know the happy oblivion of our childhood.
And I pray now that the Lord might bless him,
And all the millions of other
Boys next door.

ADMINISTRATION





To the Class of 1966:

As you come to the end of your high school graduation, I would like to ask you a question. Will your life be different in the succeeding years and if so, what will make it different?

The way to make your life fruitful does not depend on whether it is 1965 or 1966. The calendar year will not make it different. What will make your life rewardingly different are your mind and soul.

Among the many classic sayings of Emerson, one is particularly fitting for youth as well as adults. He said, "We are always getting ready to live, but never living." Pascal joins him in saying, "We never live, but we hope to live; and as we are always arranging for being happy, it cannot be but that we never are so." Seneca, a philosopher of old, tops these thinkings off when he said, "The part of life which we really live is short."

Take full advantage of life and youth. Take advantage of your intelligence, the vast potential of your mind, your eagerness, vitality and health.

There are unlimited horizons for living and working. God's gift for living is yours -- use it wisely.

Congratulations,

Carleton F. Rose

Superintendent of Schools

To the Class of 1966

You have prepared for twelve years to become successful in your chosen fields. Some will further your education; others have decided to discontinue their formal education and to go into the world of work.

To all of you I wish the very best and congratulate you on completing twelve very difficult years of formal education.

Remember that success is for those energetic enough to work for it, hopeful enough to look for it, patient enough to wait for it, brave enough to seize it and strong enough to hold it.

Sincerely,

Aloysius C. Bundrick

CLASS HISTORY

In September of 1962, most of the class reached a long dreamed of goal, high school. We had all looked forward to the first day of school; but when it came most of us were scared silly. That day was probably the hardest of our four years, but now we know it was worth the suffering.

Through our four years, we were lucky to have good leadership. Leading us in our freshman year were: Julian Doktor, president; John Banas, vice president; Nancy Fleury, secretary; and Kathleen McCarthy, treasurer. Our student council representatives that year were Franklin Perry, Mary Burnham, and Mary Lou La Barge. In our sophomore year we elected: David Martin, a newcomer, president; John Banas, vice president; Nancy Fleury, secretary; and Kathleen McCarthy, treasurer. Those on the Student Council were: Franklin Perry, Mary Burnham, and Julian Doktor. We were led through our junior year by: Patricia Lizak, president; John Banas, vice president; Nancy Fleury, secretary; and Kathleen McCarthy, treasurer. Our Student Council members were Mary Burnham, Franklin Perry, Julian Doktor, and Katherine Traska. The leaders of our senior class were: John Banas, president; Darlene Romanski, vice president; Nancy Fleury, secretary; Kathleen McCarthy, treasurer; and Linda Floury, historian. Our Student Council members were Mary Burnham, Franklin Perry, Julian Doktor, and Denise Deumas. Through our four years, we were guided by Miss Burke, our class advisor.

Though our class was small, we always had a few classmates who were athletically inclined. Vincent Bednarz played on the varsity basketball team under the supervision of Coach Ehrhart for four years: Casimier Kozlowski played on the varsity team for three years; and David Cook played with them for two years. Many of the boys went out for the junior varsity team and worked under Coach Perrin and Coach Nase. They were: Franklin Perry, Thomas Brunton, Charles Gilbert, Paul Ducharme, Vincent Bednarz, Thomas Orzulak, Julian Doktor, Casimier Kozlowski, James Keefe, Daniel Morin, and David Martin. During our four years, the girls' basketball team had three coaches, Pat McCarthy, Jackie Holden, and Miss Bongiorni. The girls who went out for the team were: Lenore Marriott, Mary Burnham, Sandy Page, Linda Floury, Katherine Traska, Kathleen McCarthy, and Dorothy McCarthy.

Leading the cheers for our teams through the four years were: Kathy LaPierre, Linda Floury, Pat Lizak, Irene Zola, Cindy Crowly, Kathy Traska, Sandy Towne, and Sylvia Sablak.

During our high school years we had many activities which will always wake memories. Among them were: Foodsales; candy sales; a book sale; the Sophomore Hop, which we called "April Showers"; the Senior Reception in our junior year which we titled "Aloha"; the fight over daisies when we ended up with a pink, yellow and white daisy arch for graduation; the "Freshman Initiation"; a car wash; paper drives; and now as this history goes to press we are looking forward to our Senior Prom in April, our class trip in May, and finally to graduation in June.

Our four years at Warren High School have probably been the happiest of our lives. We were a class blessed with wonderful teachers and more wonderful parents who were always there and willing to help.

Fisk, Fisher & Shepard — ounds like a law firm — but his triumvirate could be West oylston High's parlay into a econd straight Smaller Schools lark University Basketball ournament championship.

The Lions (14-7) will clash ith Warren's fifth-seeded but ejuvenated Eagles (19-3) for ll the marbles at 2:30 p.m. to-orrow, in what looms as an ld-fashioned shooting match etween two muscular quintets.

"The final will be tough," romised West Boylston coach oe Garofoli on walking off the oor with a 67-60 triumph over rallying Narragansett Region-l.

Warren set it up by breaking uickly from the barrier last ight to upset Tahanto Regional f Boylston, 76-55. "We beat em down the floor for 3 on 1 nd 3 on 2 situations for easy ops," remarked Frank Eh-hart in the Warren dressing oom.

Rangers Favored

Unbeaten Westboro (20-0) will e favored to take the starch ut of Paul Kollios' Millbury olverines, upset winners over hrewsbury and carrying a 7-11 ecord, while plucky, sixth-eeded Prouty of Spencer (6-11) neets Grafton (12-7) in onight's Larger Schools semi-nals.

Reggie Fisk, a 5-7 playmaker, roved the key man in West oylston's sheepish win over ansett. He kept the Lions to-ether, confirmed Coach Garo-li, when their rivals from empleton spurted from 15 own at halftime (and 10 in ar-ears with 4 minutes on the clock) to make it a ball game.

The Warren Eagles will play

Les Fisher led West Boylston scorers with 21 points, while Paul Shepard, the 6-2 junior and big gun, sparked the early cushion and wound up with 16.

"Their zone press bothered us a bit and we panicked," explained Garofoli. "I attribute this to inexperience (three sophs, two juniors) but we adjusted, and that Morrilly was a leaping Lena out there."

Mike Morrilly, 6-2 but with springs for legs, continually got the tap on West Boylston's 6-5 sophomore, Jud Hunt, and gave Gansett precious possession time and again. Morrilly, a senior, rimmed a bushel of shots, unluckily, and still collected 18 points to pace the Wachusett League kingpins.

Gallant Sizzles

Another Gansett cannonball was 6-2 senior Paul Gallant. He turned hot in the late stages and fired 14 markers.

Warren, featuring southpaw shooter Vin Bednarz and rugged Cas Koslowski, both 6-1 seniors; 5-10 junior Ricky Rearick; 5-11 junior Billy Carroll and "qua terback" John Wilk, a 5-8 ju ior, may have the tools to d throne West Boylston.

"They beat us in this tourn by three last year," points o Warren mentor Ehrhart w played his basketball under Grenert at St. Anselm's. "W are on our second peak rig now. We were third in o league, losing twice to Nor Brookfield, but things change after a little meeting I had wit the players."

Late Surge by Eagles

The Warren turnabout wa evidenced in the Clark debu Monday afternoon against U bridge. It was 23-21 at halftim and then the Eagles flew awa 59-34.

"Tonight (Thursday) we sh 45 per cent from the floor, o best in a long time," asserte Ehrhart.

Koslowski was steaming wi

24 points and eight rebounds, while Bednarz and Rearick fired 15 each; Carroll, 11, and Wilk, nine. Bednarz grabbed 10 rebounds and Carroll just one less. The team dropped 24 of 37 charities against Tahanto's 17 of 27.

Ehrhart's strategy, after scouting Tahanto's win over Hardwick, was to move downcourt before the Stags could organize their press. Thus, a second-period outburst put Warren on top, 35-19.

Coach Tom Murphy of Tahanto never got a chance to spring his little men for the good shot from the corner. Junior George Blenkhorn did manage 21 points, but little Ed Zalneraitis with his soft one-handers was the only other Stag shooter in double figures with 10 points.

With 7 minutes to go Warren demonstrated its patience, working a weave like a machine, Carroll and Wilk handled the ball outside for nearly a minute until Koslowski was scot free for an easy hoop and a 60-40 lead.
